JACKSONVILLE, Pla., September 25 .- Yesterday was a cold and cheerless day in Jackson-ville. The bun was clouded and a penetrating, drizzling rain fell all day without intertion, having a most depressing effect on both the sick and the well, and doing more toward discouraging the workers than any amount of sickness under clearer skies. The official report last night is not calculated to en the gloom and depression that prevails, totals are assuming greater proportions. The bulletin read at 6 p. m. last night:

New cases, 113; deaths, 5; total number of cases to date, 1,991; total number of deaths to date, 217. To-day's onser-whites, 34; colored, 79. Deaths—Infant of Mrs. Holland, Miss Francis A. Curner, Antonio Lingi, J. B. Roache, 8r., Jas. Thomas.

TROUBLESOME NURSES.

The surses are as much trouble as the fever, on account of the number of incompetent ones who come in, and at critical moment grossly neglect their duties and desert the patients entirely. Reports are made every day by doctors and others who complain of trates the condition of affairs. A female nurse came from Nashville, Tenn., well recommended. She was put in charge of five patients in one house. MEMPHIS, Tenn., September 25 .- The road eading into Memphis are all under patrol by rds, the Memphis Merchants' Zouaves and the Scharr Zouaves. No persons will be allowed to enter the town either by boat or rail fied pass. Trade is at a standstill.

The scare is over, and the panicky feeling of the past four days has given way to a more fational view of the situation. Many of those who were most alarmed are now confider that there will be no further spread of the fever from either Decatur, Ala., or Jackson, Miss. The exodus from this city has ceased, and some who were the first to leave are now applying for passes to return. At the meeting of the Advisory Com of the Cotton and Merchants' Exchanges, held to-day at noon, a resolution was adopted re-questing the Board of Health to rescind their order enforcing quarantine regulations against the railroads on the west side of the Mississippi River, which is to go into effect to-nigh this afternoon and take action on this rec-ceived during the day from various points along the southern line, Mr. Jeffrey and: "Ballard County, Kentucky, opposite Cairo, Ili., has modified the quaran-tine so as to permit engines and trains to run into East Cairo, the same as heretofore, thus enabling the railroad company to run trains between East Cairo and Jackson, Tenn. 105 miles, although at nearly all intermediate stations the local quarantines forbid the stoppage of trains. Between Jackson, Tenn., and Canton, Miss., 260 miles, two or three stations have modified the quarantine regulations to the extent of permitting trains to stop, provided there is a rigid inspection by the prope authorities. There are no cases of fever ou side of Jackson, Miss., upon the 900 miles or rallway controlled by the Illinois Centra south of Cairo, nor is there a case on the Mobile & Ohio road between Cairo and Mobile which extends from Durant northeast to Aberdeen, 106 miles. It has abandoned all trains on the 145 miles of branch lines in the compelled this course.'

Ex-Gov. Reed of Florida, who is in the city, the camps to rest a few day sand has started a local movement to aid the fever stricken districts. A call is issued for a meeting of all citizens of Florida now in Chicago, to be held on Wednesday, to organize for work in that direction.

Nobody here doubts the authenticity of the diary, in spite of official denials, seeing that the Runds-chau is still permitted to be published. Bis-marck's opportune revelation in 1870 of Napoleon's designs on Belgium, opened the eyes of many of his admirers in England to the real nature of his policy, but this was almost for-gotten after his misfortunes. The Daily News reminds the influential classes in England who orgave Napoleon his treason against the liberty of France, because he was supposed to entertain friendly feelings towards England, of their infatuation, which it declares cannot survive the present revelation of Bonapartist treachery.

The indications for twenty-fou ours commencing at 3 p. m. today for Missouri are: Fair weather; slightly cooler, northerly winds.

THE saloon dives and dens must go.

If there should be more care taken to prevent thugs from getting saloon license there would be less crime and a decided gain to the community at large.

Another reduction in St. Louis excursion rates from the East only serves to make more prominent the lack of reductions from the West and Southwest.

and revolver.

It is in the interest of all law-abiding liquor dealers and saloon-keepers that the dens be closed. It is the presence of the thug in the business which brings it into reproach and excites opposition on the part of many good people to the trade. The saloon dive should be abolished for the sake of law and morality.

REPUBLICAN newspapers in Missouri are pluming themselves on the harmony and organization of the party in the State. As the organization is pretty much all centered in one powerful boss whose rule is unquestioned, there is no reason that the example of Republican harmony should not be perfect and beautiful.

WHETHER the speech of Hon. Roger O. MILLS, to be delivered in East St. Louis, will convert the Republicans into good Democrats or not we feel warranted in predicting a great effort on the part of the distinguished Texan and a warm, hospitable reception for him from the citizens of that lively town. Keepers of dens that were closed by the police on account of the infamous notoriety attaching to them have been granted new saloon licenses to open similar dens in other places, as if a mere removal were a guarantee of future good behavior or could give a new character to a person of demonstrated unfitness.

In every case of that kind the Collector is not discharging the duty imposed on him by law. AN INTERESTING QUESTION. The Injunction Proceedings Against Band

NEW YORK, September 25 .- A question interesting to foreign authors and American pub-liables was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Barrett in the Supreme Court Ches, and incidentally to the argumen by Judge Barrett in the Suprems Court Chambers, and tecidentially to the argument on continuing a preliminary injunction secured by Laird & Lee, restraining Rand, McNally & Co. from putting on the market Emile Zola's latest works. Col. Ingersoll and Col. Geo. Hilss caused both the court and the speciators to smile over their different rendering of passages of the translation in Laird & Lee's edition. Col. Hilss ridiouled the translation made by Count E. de V. Vermont, especially where it was mentioned that certain statues of saints which were covered with snow were dazzling with candor. Col. Ingersoll ably defended the use of "candor," and argued that it just expressed the appearance of the statues, and that it was wise for one who would criticise the translation to know a little at least of the languages, while a smattering of both could do no harm. It was contended by Col. Ingersoll on behalf of Laird & Lee that they obtained the right of publishing "The Dream" in America from Count Edgar de V. Vermont, who obtained the right of translation and publication in England; that the book had not been published even in France.

Coh Bliss argued that Zola had sold the right of translation and publication in England; that the story had been partially if not entirely published in serial form; that Rand, McNally & Co. had secured the right of publication from the English publishers and were thus protected in issuing the book here. He contended that at any rate Rand, McNally & Co. ought not to be kept under an injunction as they would be greatly damaged and were ready to give bond in almost any sum. Judge Barrett was inclined to the view that on prima facie evidence there was not warrant for dissoving the injunction, but said if a bond was intended to the view that on prima facie evidence there was not warrant for dissoving the injunction, but said if a bond was Arrived there he found a regularly picketed camp with some thirty-five or forty bronzed looking soldlers standing about, while lying on a blanket, under a kind of arbor, was the wounded man. A minte builet had gone through the right lung from breast to back, tearing while it penetrated. All that night and the greater part of the next day Dr. Wood remained in this camp in the bottom. For three weeks, or until the man was out of danger, Dr. Wood was borne backward and forward, always with the same escort and with the same driver. Asked for his bill, Dr. Wood said: "I have never yet charged a soldler a cent for professional services, and I never will; you owe me nothing. The war has made misery enugh at best, and if you have any money to spare give it to some poor widow with a lot of helpless children."

The wounded man whom Dr. Wood then oured was Jesse James, afterward so well known all over the country. It was not for years afterward that even Dr. Wood himself knew who his patient was. Over and over again Jesse James sought to make some return for the kindness shown him, but always "I will be with you in three minutes," wa

Two Attempts of a Colored Mob to Lynch a Negro Murderer. Louisville, Ky., September 26.-At Scottsille, Allen County, Ky., in a colored church, last Saturday, Monroe Wilkinson, a notorious negro, entered during the services and broke up the congregation by drawing a revolver and threatening to shoot. Berry Marion, an aged and highly respected colored man, led him out of the church and remonstrated with As he turned away Wilkinson him in the back, killing him shot him in the back, killing him instantly. The murderer fied, but a posse of white and colored men pursued and captured him. The negroes wanted to lynch him, but a white man took wilkinson behind him on a horse and carried him safely to jail at Scottsville. Sunday night two attempts was made by a party of about forty negroes to take Wilkinson from the jail and hang him, but they were driven off. The lynchers swore that they would get reinforcements and lynch the murderer at any cost, and much excitement prevails at Scottsville.

It appears that Lozers Amador, Captain of the Contras Guards, a body of mounted Custom house inspectors, and Graciano Cautu, one of the State Rangers had had trouble, and a grudge existed between them. Meeting in San Filipe de Sabinas, they draw their pistols simultaneously and began shooting. Amador fell dead at the second fire and his opponent Cautu died within an hour from the effects of his wounds. Great excitement existed in the place at the time of the shooting but no further frouble occurred. Both men were under the influence of mescal at the time of the affray.

mmission, composed of Judge Cariton of diana, Judge Williams of Arkansas, Col. Godfrey of Iowa, Gen. McLernand of Illinois and Arthur L. Thomas of Pennsylvania, is in and Arthur L. Thomas of Pennsylvania, is in this city. The commissioners are now at work preparing their report which will be submitted to the Interior Department. Mr. Thomas was formerly Secretary of Utah Terdiory. He said to a reporter yesterday that he Edmunds law had been of great benefit to the people of Utah and that in provisions are being generally observed. If polygamy was practiced it was in secret. The Mormons still had their agents in all lands and emigrants were constantly coming into the Territory. The condict of authority there was such that the Utah question was one of great complexity, and, as there had been so many exagerated reports concerning the situation, Mr. Thomas said the commissioners did not care to discuss the matter outside of their report, which would cover the ground fully.

Last night at a dance at No. 184 North Levee, Eliza Logan and Birdie Lynn got into a quarrel over a man. Birdie drew a kuite and used it treely on the person of Eliza, cutting a severe fash in her forearm and cutting her nose hearly off. The injured woman was taken to the City Dispensary, where the wounds were dressed by Dr. Jacobson and the pitient sent to the City Hospital.

Polish Catholic Societies Refused to Be Con trolled by Their Pastors.

CHICAGO, Ill., September 25 .- There is Catholic Church. The Rev. Father John Radthe church because they refused to accept articles sent to them by their priest, with the demand that they be adopted. These articles provided that each society should be under the control of the Archbishop and the management of the parish priest, and that when present the priest should preside. The latter part of this is very obnoxious to them, but not so much so as the second article, which provides that the parish priest and his assistants shall be present at all elections and shall have the authority to reject all officers elected if deemed unsuitable by the priest. The final article gives the priest absolute power by declaring that no change shall be made in the constitution or by-laws without his sanction, and winds up by saying that any society which does not accept the three articles is "no longer a Catholic society."

All the societies refused to adopt the articles and it is under the final clause that they strike has thrown this city into a great state of excitement, owing to the fact that under the instructions of the President of the Cigar makers' Union, the laundrymen, carriage makers' Union, the laundrymen, carriagemakers, cigarette makers, cigarette packers, and other unions established here, have declared a general strike. The strikers are going from place to place asking men to stop work. Sunday 200 strikers appeared at the Legitimatad, Africana, Sibony, Cabanas, and other large cigarette factories, employing over one hundred operatives, and with threats of violence obliged men to leave work. The authorities did nothing until the state of affairs grew serious. At 11 o'clock

bunday night Acting Usptain-General Sanches Labra telegraphed CaptainGeneral Maria, who was in Cadenas, to return immediately. The Governor issued a proclamation setting forth that any and all groups of strikers found on the streets creating a disturbance or obliging men to leave work, or any person or persons in any way creating a riot, should be immediately taken to jail.

Shortly after the proclamation had been creating a riot, should be immediately taken to jail.

Shortly after the proclamation had been issued twenty-seven strikers, most of them armed with clubs, were arrested. The Colonels of the different regiments of volunteers were called to the palace by the Acting Captain-General at a late hour and instructed to be ready for any emergency. Government troops were also ordered to remain in their forts and to be ready. Captain-General Maria arrived from Cadenas at 30 clock yesterday morning on a special train, His Excellency having traveled all night. It is now calculated that the strikers number over twenty-five thousand, including those in the small cities surrounding Havana, that are also on strike. Six strikers went to the Estanlilo omnibus stables and ordered the men there to stop work. The strikers were arrested and are now in jail. There are stationed in every cigar and cigarette factory throughout the city four police officials to protect the buildings from the strikers.

A A. linched the bargain with the Gaello Associa dy money will do just step into Crawford's tion team, and upon Mr. Cullinane's arriva d price fiannels, cloaks, shoes, silks and here the arrangements were made even more union, which led to the Executive Board, a its meeting at Detroit, appointing a Conference Committee composed of F. A. Jansen, Staten Island A. C.; Otto Ruhl, New York A C., and J. E. Sullivan, Pastime A. C., to meet Mr. Cullinane. The conference was held last night nane. The conference was held last night at the New York Athletic Club-house and it was a stormy one indeed. The union offered inducements to the Irish team to compete only under union rules, and as the terms were not accepted passed a resolution prohibiting any member of the Irish team to compete at the N. A. A. championship meeting October 6. As there are twenty-eight union clubs in almost as many cities against only two clubs in the N. A. A. it will be seen that the Irish team will not make a great financial success as if the union's terms were acceded to. When the meeting opened last night Mr. Jansen explained to the manager of the Irish team that the union desired to be friendly to the visiting athletes and in return expected only compliance with the

by the priest. The final article gives the priest absolute power by declaring that no chunge shall be made in the constitution or by-laws without his sanction, and winds up by saying that any society which does not accept the three articles is "no longer a Oatholic society."

All the societies refused to adopt the articles, and it is under the final clause that they have been excluded from the church. Prominent Poles say that it is intended to carry this movement from church to church as as to give the clergy complete control of all Catholic societies and their finances, but the people of St. Adelbert's propose to nip it in the but. They have petitioned booth their poles into the church pechan to receive them to accede to their request unless the reverse him the demanded power, and the Archibishop has not yet replied to their petition. A largely attended mass meeting was held last evening, at which is was decided to form a society and to decide upon a line of action if the Archibishop is not heard from soon.

HAVANA, September 25.—The cigarmakers strike has thrown this city into a great state of excitement, owing to the fact that under

"OTTO BUHL,
"J. E. SULLIVAN, After the meeting Mr. Jansen said to a reporter: "We did all we could to conciliate the members of the Irish, but the manager was evidently pledged to the Manhattans. He could or would not see that by competing under rules his team would make more money. The union has fourteen times as many clubs as the National Association, and he would make fourteen times as much money. As the matter now stands no union club can accept the entry of any of the team who competes in the Manhattan's game on October 6."

The team of Irish athletics will soon arrive and will be greeted by a large number of Irish men of this city. A meeting of the Gaelic Society of this city was held at the rooms No. If West Twenty-eighth street, when it was arranged to have a parade with the athletes to the Grand Central Hotel. An address of welcome will be made and a banquet will follow in the evening.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, September 25.—The San Fran elsee sprint runner, V. E. Schifferstein, with his club mate, Tom Purcell, left Sunday for Montreal, where they will compete in the Montreal, where they will compete in the Canadian championship meeting next Saturday. Mr. Schifferstein became very popular with Eastern athletes during the past week, and he leaves this city with many pleasant recollections of his stay. Before going away he said that he had learned much about athletics in a week, and he believed the knowledge gained would be of benefit to the managers of meetings on the Pacific Coast.

that Attorney of Eric County. La Bianche is wanted in Buffalo to answer to an indictment found on Wednesday last for having assisted at a brutal prize fight between Miss Alice Leary of Bradford and Mrs. Hattle Leslie of Buffalo.
The fight was arranged in Buffalo for a purse of $250 a side and the gate receipts. "Billy"
Baker, a Buffalo pugilist, seconded Leary, and La Bianche performed the same office for Hattle Leslie.
The conditions were skin-tight gloves and the Marquis of Queensberry rules. The fight came off early Sunday morning, September 16, in a barn off Navy Island. It resulted in a victory for Leslie after seven rounds which lasted half an hour, in which both women were severely "punished." When Beker finally threw up the sponge for his principal both women were very much exhausted and presented a disgusting picture. Mrs. Leslie was arrested on Tuesday, and on Wednesday the Eric County Grand-jury found La Blanche guilty of participating in and abstring prize-fighting. Chief Moran of the Buffalo police head the pugilist arrested in this city, and when arfaigned at the Tombs was remanded to police headquarters to await the coming of an officer from Buffalo. He said at the Tombs that he was not present at the fight.

caused much uneasiness to those who partici-pated. Several leading citizens, it is said, pated. Several leading oftigens, it is said, were connected with the trouble and a good many have quit the city for unknown parts since Fulljames died. When Barrett caught him by the hand to shake it he (Barrett) dealt Fulljames several terrific blows on the temple before he released his grip. It is rumored that the intention was to "do up" Fulljames. The Coroner's jury found that the deceased came to his death by a blow from a person unknown. Several attempts have been made to steal the body, but a strong guard has been constantly watching it.

[New York Sun.]
It is rather amusing to read the comments made by the St. Louis players as to what they will do with the New Yorks when they meet this fall. According to the St. Louis men, they will have no more trouble in defeating the New Yorks than they now have winning from the Louisville, Kanass City, or some other club of like strength. They will, according to their talk, bat Welch and Keefe out of the lot, they will run bases at will on Ewing; they will, in fact, do everything that a professional team would do in a game with amateurs. And the New Yorkers? Well, they have nothing to say; they think best to leave all the talking for the Browns to do.—[New York Sun.—Never did it.

all the talking for the Browns to do.—[New York Sun.—Never did it.

The base ball aggregation that claims so have a mortgage on the pennant this year is said by Detroit people to be a collection of invalids. Musrie is pictured as being nearly frantic Friday morning last when he discovered that Big Roger Connor was suffering from nervous prostration. A physician was instantly called and something to tone up the big man's nerves was prescribed. The doctor had hardly left when "Barrister" O'Rourke was discovered to be failing from palpitation of the heart. "An ounce of prevention was given," and the man of medicine departed. For the third time Mutrie requested the doctor to hurry to the hotel, Mickey Weich having a severe attack of faceache. It was also said that "Buck" Ewing must have inflammation of the brain, as his head was swelled to twice its natural size. All the members, with the exception of Murphy, were said to have complained of being under the weather.—[Chicago Tribune.
